the story angel cruz is a thirty year old bike messenger from nyc who has lost his best friend to a religious cult at the opening of the play he is in his second night of incarceration awaiting trial for shooting the leader of that cult in the

in a rapidly changing world the ways in which economic forces affect both personal and global change can be difficult to track particularly in the arts this collection of twenty new essays explores both obscure and famous plays dealing with economic issues beginning with the industrial revolution the text moves from marx s theories to wall street speculation nineteenth century immigration issues the excesses of the gilded age and the 1920s the great depression world war ii and millennial economic challenges this is the first book length study of one of the most talented and exciting american playwrights working today stephen adly guirgis has said that god is the starting point and the finish line of his work and this book identifies him as a playwright with a distinctly christian sensibility who uses the technique of inculturation to translate the gospel for a secular audience critics have noted that his plays are peopled with poor suffering minority figures but few have also noted that these figures bear a remarkable similarity to the dispossessed with whom jesus identifies in matthew 25 beginning with his early play den of thieves and proceeding through each of his dramas this work examines guirgis s plays within a biblical context while noting that guirgis is a writer of the post christian age who staunchly resists identification as a christian playwright the book situates him within the tradition of the drama of ideas as a powerful writer employing a dialectical method to inculcate the new testament ethos and transform the theater space into a place of sacrament containing the transactions of the various sections together with abstracts of papers published in other journals etc
